

Due to the forecast of inclement weather tomorrow, the rally with Governor Hochul is being moved to the Dutch Ale House in Saugerties, which has a large tented area in the back protected from rain and wind. RSVPs will now be required. This information is not released to the public yet, so please do not broadcast.

Since the event will now be on private property with capacity limits, we are developing an invite/RSVP list.

Please RSVP by 5:00 p.m. today through this link: <https://forms.gle/QxjGyeYNX5EXLT7fA>
