

“When the City of Kingston faced a drinking water crisis, Jim Quigley stepped up and helped solve the problem.”

– Judith Hansen, former Kingston Water Superintendent

VOTE NOV 8TH! ★ QUIGLEY FOR COUNTY EXECUTIVE

In February of 2015 a water main break created a drinking water crisis that threatened to run the city's water supply dry. JIM QUIGLEY didn't wait to be asked for help. He quickly made water routing changes from the Town of Ulster to supply Kingston with clean drinking water, alleviating the crisis.

To Jim, boundaries and politics don't matter, especially when a neighbor's in need.
