

Who do you want fighting the opioid crisis in Ulster County ?

Opioid Deaths down 58% in Ulster County in the last year.

"Ulster County Chief Asst. District Attorney Mike Kavanagh announced that for the first time in Ulster County, homicide charges are being brought against someone for their sale of fentanyl laced heroin which resulted in a death. This person is the first person in the history of Ulster County to be held accountable for distributing fentanyl laced heroin, causing a death.

WE CAN'T THANK MIKE KAVANAGH enough for his dedication and diligence to get these people off the street. Great Work!"
