ZELDIN

GOVERNOR

The fight to save our state is only just beginning. Throughout history, New York has stood out as a beacon of hope, progress, and opportunity, and I believe that if we all do our part in this gubernatorial campaign that its best days still lie ahead. I'm honored to have your support, and I am looking forward to continuing the journey to restore New York's glory with you in my corner.

I will bring the kind of relentless, fighting spirit towards helping to save our state that will reverse New York's decline and the constant attacks on our wallets, safety and freedoms. I'll fight to defend our public safety, unleash economic greatness, restore honor and integrity to the Governor's office, and make New York a place we can once again be proud to call home. To many, this feels like a last stand to save New York. Losing is not an option.

Thank you for your generous support.

Sincerely,

Republican Nominee for Governor
